

Don't You Touch Me

SoKo

I was seated by myself And you came You asked me to take your hand and again You told me if I'm nice We would be together So I'm doing my best But we're not You told me if I'm nice We would be together And you would be nice too And you would be nice too And you would be nice too

But don't you touch me Cause it means so much to me

I stayed pure as a dove for you my love But you are a werewolf Aren't you my love And I soon realize that it's not a game To find the soulmate of your life I soon realize that it's not worth the gamble Cause I always lose Cause I always lose Cause I always lose

Let's not pretend To be just friends And don't hold my hand again in Don't break my heart again

Is there A place Where I can rest Without you in my head Without you in my head Without you in my head
