

The House Above the World

Sol Invictus

The house above the world
Looks down upon the Earth
We look up and load our guns
In search of death and the sun

To the house above the world

The sun has no shadows
The sun has no doubts

Our destiny is plain
At Europa's broken heart
We have a path to run
In search of death and that black sun