

All the Things You Say

Solar Fake

It's cold outside
But I have to leave
'Cause I can't stay
So many words were said
Just a waste of breath
I'd die to get me out
Of the mire devouring me
Then I wake up and find the world aligned again
I'd take a break from trust and lies
The altered parts of my memory prevailed again

I feel so incomplete today
What did you think kept us alive?
During my Illusionary times
With nothing left to say
But I don't care I'll take a break from cheer and pain
Counterparts will never match again

Theres nothing left to take care

All the things you say
Cannot hurt me much I'm a whore all over
And I'll be there just for you
For a last time tonight
The things you say
Don't affect me much
I'm a super nova

And I'll shine so bright for you
For a last time tonight

Nobody gets what they deserve
Now as time goes by
It's immaterial
It hardly matters
What I do believe
We'll take a break from standing still

At least we're clear eternity
Another day
But we don't mind

All the things you say
Cannot hurt me much I'm a whore all over
And I'll be there just for you
For a last time tonight
The things you say

Don't affect me much
I'm a super nova
And I'll shine so bright for you
For a last time tonight

(All the things you say)
(The things you say)
I'll be there just for you

All the things you say
Don't affect me much
I'm a super nova
And I'll shine so bright for you
