

Arrive Somewhere

Solar Fake

These heavy clouds
They're raining down on you and me
And everything seems unbearable
If you are waiting for that actual moment
It's long since past, you see?
I don't know what I was waiting for

And then you said:
"There are some days...
...when I just want to leave, I want to run away"
"Then I realise that my own feet will not carry me."

It's time to go and now I just want you to know
That I would love to sense you're here
Because the rest proved insincere
Let's let them stand, backs to the wall
They'll only watch us as we fall
And I don't care how we survive
If there's a chance we could arrive somewhere

I don't want to blame
My own mistakes on someone else
And I don't want to forget my past
So will you come with me and stay
Or step aside and clear the way
Instead of wasting so much time

'Cause you said:
"There are some days...
...when I just want to leave, I want to run away"
"Then I realise that my own feet will not carry me."

It's time to go and now I just want you to know
That I would love to sense you're here
Because the rest proved insincere
Let's let them stand, backs to the wall
They'll only watch us as we fall
And I don't care how we survive
If there's a chance we could arrive somewhere

It's time to go
It's time to go

It's time to go and now I just want you to know
That I would love to sense you're here
Because the rest proved insincere
Let's let them stand, backs to the wall
They'll only watch us as we fall
And I don't care how we survive
If there's a chance we could arrive somewhere

That I would love to sense you're here
Let's let them stand, backs to the wall
They'll only watch us as we fall
And I don't care how we survive
If there's a chance we could arrive somewhere
