

Glue Girls

Someone Still Loves You Boris Yeltsin

2 sisters ever so inseparable
1 saw right through me, 1 i handed an apple
I tried to change their chemistry
I tried to make one stick to me
She could make your tongue your tongue stick to the sun

Maybe if i lay low, love will fall around my door (the dogs'll let me know)

Suck it up, sharon, maybe it's time
You and your sister finally sever the line

Don't pass me over again
Your fickle heart's unwaverin'

Maybe if i lay low, love will fall around my door and Maybe I won't, but your cold eyes, baby, Tell me I should be looking for love with some other (girl)

Come on girl this isn't fun (some other girl's) got my head tied to the sun.
Should i chose not to run?

Heard you laughing behind your friend getting in th' car again now you're acting like she was preteeeeeeeeeeeending we can walk the road, kickin up the dust we can take it slow stop me if you want let me in yr love, that's all that i want let me in. Yr love--it's sticky when we touch...
