

Oceanographer

Someone Still Loves You Boris Yeltsin

The oceanographer
He talks to other girls
The map topographer
He's in his own world
The court stenographer
He copies everything
The news photographer
He's not listening

You're into me
You'll always be
Way in too deep
He'll only be

The oceanographer
He can't really swim
Yeah, it's personal
Don't know where you think you fit it
The court stenographer
He don't love any more
The news photographer
He's done all this before

I capsized
Serene eyes
We're in too deep
He'll only be

The oceanographer
He talks to other girls
The map topographer
He's in his own world
The court stenographer
He copies everything
The news photographer
He's not listening
