

Obsession

SoMo

Oh, you know I don't smoke on Sunday
Gotta be a day to rest
You know that sometimes it's hard to let down my guard
Still I try my best
You've been holding on to something
I've been on a satellite
Running round and round this world
Like a vagabond till the end of time, oh

Ain't no coming back
If you say goodbye ain't no coming back, oh
Ain't no coming back
If you say goodbye ain't no coming back, oh

You had no obsession with the life
Just wanted affection in the night, oh
You had no direction from a sign
We had disconnection on the line, oh

You told me that you didn't want this on your own
(you wanted things, you wanted things
You wanted things on your own)
You told me that you didn't want this all alone
Well who am I to put in miles, on your heart?
Well who am I to put in miles, on your heart?

You know i don't drink on Sundays
Guessing that today's my test
You know that sometimes it's hard to let down my guard
Still i try my best, oh

Ain't no coming back
If you say goodbye ain't no coming back, oh
Ain't no coming back
If you say goodbye ain't no coming back, oh

You had no obsession with the life
Just wanted affection in the night, oh
You had no direction from a sign
We had disconnection on the line, oh

You told me that you didn't want this on your own
(you wanted things, you wanted things
You wanted things on your own)
You told me that you didn't want this all alone
Well who am I to put in miles, on your heart?
Well who am I to put in miles, on your heart?
