

White Light

SoMo

You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my heart
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my scars

I'm just a man for ya (for ya)
Girl, I wrote a plan for ya (for ya)
You know that I stand for ya (for ya)
Always (always)
I been having dreams for ya (for ya)
Gathering the means for ya (for ya)
Million dollar scenes for ya (for ya)
Always (always)

But I ain't coming home tonight
You know I been hopping flight to flight
Landing different places, I can't take it, oh no
(Like a time bomb, ticking like a time bomb)
Give me all the love you have inside
Can't imagine love without your light
I know you been patient, you been waiting so long (so long)

Say you want this life out loud
Say you want this life out loud
Say you want this life out loud
Say you want this life out loud
Say you want this life out loud (ticking like a tomb bomb)
Say you want this life out loud (all these different time zones)
Say you want this life out loud (at it, but my mind's gone)
Say you want this life out loud (wake me up when I'm home)

You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my heart
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my scars
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my heart
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I'm doing my part

Scared of running away
Seeing the name of
Seeing the name change from
What it was made of
I, I want you by my side
Want you in my life always
Need you in my life, oh

But I ain't coming home tonight
You know I been hopping flight to flight
Landed different places, I can't take it, oh
(Like a time bomb, ticking like a time bomb)

Give me all the love you have inside
Can't imagine love without your light
I know you been patient, you been waiting so long (so long)

Say you want this life out loud, oh
Say you want this life out loud, oh
Say you want this life out loud, oh
Working on something
I made an assumption
I want it, I want it
Ticking like a time bomb (ticking like a tomb bomb)
All these different time zones (all these different time zones)
At it, but my mind's gone (at it, but my mind's gone)
Wake me up when I'm home (wake me up when I'm home)

You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my heart
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my scars
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I show them my heart
You're the white light
You're the white, you're the white light
Reason I'm doing my part

We can ride in the 'rari
Girl, I'm sorry I don't party
I'm still guarded, brokenhearted
It started, girl, it started when you walked away
Girl, you deserve it, girl, you turned it
Way you gave your life a purpose and reversed it
Not too many people learn it but you burned it
Baby, burn away
Burn it away, oh
Burn it away, oh
