

Raise

Son Lux

Raise a living thing from nothing.

Then I will know for myself who you are.

Clothed in skin a pile of dry bones.

Then I will know for myself who you are.

I will feel breath come into my body.

Then I'll know just who you are.

Raise a living thing from nothing.

(simultaneously) Clothed in skin a pile of dry bones.

Then I will know for myself who you are.

Raise a living thing from nothing.

(simultaneously) Clothed in skin a pile of dry bones.

(simultaneously) I will feel breath come into my body.

Then I will know for myself who you are.

(repeat)

Will know for myself

You are who you say you are.

Then I will know for myself.

Then I will know.

Then I will know who you are.

Then I will know for myself.
