

Who Am I

Sonohra

Wind and fire
Now my lips are getting drier
All the dust in road so far away from you
Hear my feeling
In the silence that's around me
And I'm trying to arrive on my mistakes

I'm gonna see where I can live
And cover you and me

R : Who am I
I don't know
Just a cowboy on his own
What a lonely destiny, sad this sky

Who am I
I don't know
But I'll never let you go
I will give you here

As long as I'm alive
As long as I'm alive

Blue horizon
I can see you in the distance
And I'm trying to resist the burning sun
Til the twilight
And the stars begin to shine bright
And I guess you've may been looking up that too

I'm gonna see where I can live
And cover you and me

R : Who am I
I don't know
Just a cowboy on his own
What a lonely destiny, sad this sky
Who am I
I don't know
But I'll never let you go
I will give you here
As long as I'm alive
As long as I'm alive

Open spaces and all time passes by
On my journeys I've got nowhere to hide

Who am I
I don't know
Just a cowboy on his own
What a lonely destiny, sad this sky

Who am I
I don't know
But I'll never let you go

I will give you here

As long as I'm alive
As long as I'm alive
