Sophie Hunger

She's so ugly
Her head has grown too big
In spite of all that you have said
You must hang her now, boy
You must hang her now
She's so ugly
Her head has grown too big
Swallow all the beats and hits
You must hang her now, girl
You must hang her now

Buy that telescope and screw it in her skull
It won't be changing anything at all
You must hang her now, folks
You must hang her now
Oh oh oh oh
Hang her on the marketplace, oh
Hang her on the marketplace, oh yeah
