

Waiting For The Sun

Sophie

Wake up in the morning
Think I have a precious dream
Baby now I'll tell you
All the things, and what you mean

I take the night
I take my dreams deep inside
Everynight I still remember
All the feelings of my life

Now I'm waiting for the sun
Knocking on heavens doors
And waiting for your love
Now I'm waiting for the sun
Lie down on my sweet floor
In the night
Waiting for the sunshine light
So fire

Looking for a message
Looking for a lovely file
Now alone and lazy
Waiting for your special smile
