

Lone Rider

Soul Asylum

Peeping Tom creepin' through the mornin' moonlight (ohh, ohh, ohh)

Like a crazy coyote in the middle of the night (ohh, ohh, ohh)

You keep taggin' along 'til it does you wrong

Sometimes it takes so long for you to say so long

Not for the lone rider

Lone rider

Woah

Huh

Ya

Black cloud troll wherever he goes (ohh, ohh, ohh)

He breaks out in a cold sweat when you get too close

Your suitcase is home long may you roam lone rider

Ohh, baby's cryin' please come home lone rider

The reflections in the water but the water's a mirage

It's like a dream machine that never leaves the garage

Your boots start walkin', as the story goes

People start talkin' and he wrestlessness gows

They say he hates people, say he's a queer

Never listens but always hears

Off into the sunset he disappears

Surely the last time to come around here, oh no

Ride on

Ride on
