

Stay, forever, forever.

I'm not that kind of guy who believes in wishful thinking,

I do not believe putting that much on the line.

Ever since you came, and took my heart away,

I knew everything would work out fine.

I'm not the kind of guy, that thinks that I should I should own you.

I don't think that how love was meant to be.

Now that I've got you, I don't ever want you to leave me baby.

So I'm asking to you, to just promise me you'll stay.

(Stay) Stay with me forever, forever, baby.

How can i love you if it's just for one day?

(Stay) Stay with me forever, forever, baby.

Cause I can love if you just promise me, you'll

I'm not that kind of guy who goes into things so quickly,

I like to play the game nice and slow.

Ever since you came, you knocked me off my feet.

I knew that I could never let you go.

I'm not the kind of guy, who believes that love's a notion.

I think what is meant to be should be.

If you should ever leave, I'll be lost without you.

So i'm asking to make a little promise to me,

(Stay) Stay with me forever, forever, baby.

How can i love you if it's just for one day?

(Stay) Stay with me forever, forever, baby.

Cause I can love if you just promise me, you'll
