

All Save One

Soulfallen

The stage was set for murder as death reached again for further A line was drawn on the day redemption slept And into the light a shade of rancor crept

All... all save one
As life became undone
All save one

The rising moon bathed in a shade of red as it gleamed its scorn on the still instead Only one lied awake, deprived of all and for what's sake for death had him barely raked

Years fall as rain yet ignorance doth remain...

All... all save one
In the pale light of the Sun
All save one

"From hate arose my only passion With Death my one romance
He was spared not of pity but that of mere chance"
