

Changes

Soulsister

Here we are
But it's not the same
Why do I always learn
The hardest way

I bet my heart
On a losing game
A hungry man makes an easy prey

And now I'm prayin'
For the fool I've been
But that's one mistake
That's never gonna happen again

'Cause every day you're gone
Another night returns
And I have to face myself
I had to live and learn
I'm gonna mend this heart
I'm not ashamed to say
i think it's time for me
To make some changes
Changes

I played around
Pushed you too far
Pulled at all the strings
Till we came apart

But walls break down
When the truth gets hard
And there's no hiding
From the pain I caused

But hold on woman
Don't go now
I'm gonna get myself together
And make it up somehow

How can I convince you baby ?
I'd do anything to change your mind
So hold on woman
Don't go now
I'm gonna get myself together
And make it up somehow

How can I convince you baby ?
I'd do anything to change your mind
So hold on woman
Don't go now
I'm gonna get myself together
And make it up somehow

Change can wipe the tears away
Only change can bring you back again
There's gonna be some changes baby
