

Every Time I Hear a Love Song

Soulsister

I got me a new job
And a whole new set of friends
I never have a solitary minute
When I get to thinking
I'm finally on the mend
Turn on the radio
And there you are again

You're the dream that never dies
The tears that fill my eyes
Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song
The arrow through my heart
The storm about to start
Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song

The say I'm a new man
And I bet you would agree
If you could see me tearing up the city
The life of the party
They hate to see me leave
But good times are over when
I hear your memory

You're the dream that never dies
The tears that fill my eyes
Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song
The arrow through my heart
The storm about to start
Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song
Coming on

Strumming on my heart strings
Rhyming with my pain
Telling me you'll always be
My everything

When I get to thinking
I'm finally on the mend
Turn on the radio
And there you are again

You're the dream that never dies
The tears that fill my eyes
Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song
The arrow through my heart
The storm about to start
Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song
Coming on

My sweetest memory
But you bring me to my knees

Everytime I hear a love song
Everytime I hear a love song
Coming on
