

Facing Love

Soulsister

I'm having trouble, I can't explain
What's going on in this heart of mine
It isn't pleasure, it isn't pain
I have been dyin' to get a sign

Will you be waiting, or need persuading
You keep my fate in your hands

Facing love
I feel like someone new
Now that you've come my way
Embracing love
I do forget myself
I'm someone else
All my too familiar blues have left today

Don't need to party to cheer me up
Don't need no bad news to bring me down
I wish this feeling would never stop
Don't wan to stall 'cause I'm ready now

Don't worry baby
I'll hold you baby
Know that my arms will be strong

Facing love
I feel like someone new
Now that you've come my way
Embracing love
I do forget myself
I'm someone else
I could talk for days and still have lots to say

Facing love
I'm like a little child
My blood is runnin' wild
Facing love
Step into
A new reality
I'm glad I'm gonna be

Ooh facing love

Will you be waiting, or need persuading
You keep my fate in your hands

Facing love
I feel like someone new
Now that you've come my way
Embracing love
I do forget myself
I'm someone else
All my too familiar blues have left today
Facing love

Facing love

Now that you've come my way
Embracing love
I do forget myself
I'm someone else
I could talk for days and still have lots to say
