

Forgiven

Soulsister

I could keep on talking
If talking's what you want me to do
My head full of answers
Answers I don't know the question to
Soon it will be the day
But if you want to we'll stay

Two lonely sinners
Starving for a moment of grace
Undo your hair now
And let me kiss the tears from your face
Who could plan a night so deep
The guards are fast sleep

Let's break the seal
And steal the treasure now
Don't need a secret map
To show us how
To feel forgiven
To feel forgiven

We may always wonder
How it is that we got to this place
It was never closer
The release we thought we'd never embrace
Soon the sun will rise
We'd be crazy to think twice

We can break the seal
And steal the treasure now
Don't need a secret map
To show us how
To feel forgiven
To feel forgiven

Soon it will be the day
Let's move while there's a way

Let's break the seal
And steal the treasure now
To show us how
To feel forgiven
To feel forgiven
