

How Many Waterfalls

Soulsister

How many times you're gonna look up the sky
Send up another prayer and wait for a reply
Maybe the answer is already in your heart
Waiting to be found like a diamond in the dark

How many years have you been hoping for a change
Asking why your day of rescue never came
Don't tell me you can't make the move all by yourself
There's a thousand angels who can hear you cry for help

How many waterfalls do you have to cry
Till your eyes open
How many waterfalls will you have to dry
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls

How many nights you're gonna put up with the pain
Trust me, you don't have to give your love in vain
If you look deep enough I know you'll find the nerve
To take the walk that gives you just what you deserve

How many waterfalls do you have to cry
Till your eyes open
How many waterfalls will you have to dry
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls

Each fallen tear
Each wasted year
Can have a reason now
Don't be afraid
It's not too late
To turn it all around

Don't tell me you can't make the move all by yourself
There's a thousand angels who can hear you cry for help

How many waterfalls do you have to cry
Till your eyes open
How many waterfalls will you have to dry
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls
Baby

How many waterfalls
How many waterfalls
