

Sign Of Emotion

Soulsister

I've heard so many times that seeing's believing
I've seen so many ways a picture can lie
And I'm not too sure about the things I've been reading
Words love to play with your mind

But there's got to be some sign of emotion
Out on a road that leads somewhere
I've got to see some sign of emotion
To get me there

All around the world suspicions are rising
They say it's just another sign of the times
And all I'm looking for is someone who's trying
To make me break down and cry

But there's got to be some sign of emotion
Out on a road that leads somewhere
I've got to see some sign of emotion
To get me there

I keep lookin' for a sign of emotion
I keep lookin' for a sign in your eyes
I'm still searchin' for some kind of emotion
I'm still searchin' for a sign

And all I'm hopin' for is someone who's trying
To make me break down and cry

But there's got to be some sign of emotion
Out on a road that leads somewhere
I've got to see some sign of emotion
To get me there
