

Dark Prince's Dawn

Soulspell

I never felt this way before
In a cold and dark moon
A sunflower's been torn

Angel of fright
You can't stand up right
In front of my reality
Can you fell me?

Knight of a hell chess
A stranger uninvited
Fierceful and merciless
He's the king of all lies
Samael's defeat may not
Be enough to allow
The dark prince's dawn

You're in disguise, you gave up the fight
You're the prince of shame
Against the army of day and lights
We were betrayed
Listen to the pounding
Our future is calling
Don't let a liar decide
Your tomb's glory and height

Demons and angels will fight
Kings of barbarians they will all die

How could I truly believe Opinionless in silence I've been

Knight of a hell chess
A stranger uninvited...

Lay down your guard
If you have an empty heart
You will

(Guitar Solo - Demian)

Praise the new dark Lord
Pay the N.P. toll
Let demons symphonies begin
United are our sins

There's no dream you won't get
And you won't regret
Play it loud like hell

There's no meaning of life
Neither right nor wrong
There's no meaning of life
Just give it the value you want

Inside your cries you will find home
In your hand times there will be hope

And there will be hope

And there will be hope

Praise the new dark Lord...

Knight of a hell chess
Fierce and forgiveless
He's might

Knight of a hell chess
A stranger uninvited...

(Guitar Solo - Demian)

You're nothing but pawns
And your king to me bows
Trust me, I will never allow
