By Crooked Steps

Soundgarden

I'm addicted to feeling, stealing love isn't stealing Can't you see that I understand your mind? I'm a walking believer, I'm a ghost and a healer I'm the shape of the hole inside your heart

Not looking for a brighter side Crooked steps will take me higher I don't care if you want to cry

I'm a soldier for hire killing all you admire And you live in denial but that will change

Not looking for a brighter side Crooked steps will take me higher I don't care if you want to cry

When blood is raining down, it cuts a deep deep river And we're diving, yeah, we're diving

Right behind you, right behind you Right behind you, right behind you

(Right behind you...)
I'm a walking believer, I'm a ghost and a healer
Can't you see that I understand your mind?
Can't you see that I understand your mind?

My crooked steps right behind you Right behind you, right behind you
