

Fastfood poetry

Southpaw

Yes, we belong
Into the fastfood world
We can't deny
Our fastfood way of life
No, no...
One after the other
You and your mother
You and your brother
You and your father
And we belong
Into the fastfood world
We're so hypnotized
By the cheeseburger eyes
One after the other
You and your mother
You and your brother
You and your father
One after the other
Brother...
