

Ignore

Southpaw

Hey
Inside you
There's a light that shines on everyone
When you' re around
And hey
Behind you
So many broken hearts you left behind
While leaving town

And history has changed a bit
But you ignore it
Yeah, you ignore it
And computer screens still light our way
Just like everyday
Yeah, like everyday
They say:
Hey...

Days
Without you
They were hard and long
That's how it goes when you are alone
It stays
Inside you
For much longer than you think
It decomposes and it stinks

And history has changed a bit
But you ignore it
Yeah, you ignore it
And computer screens still light our way
Just like every day
Yeah, like every day
They say:
Hey...
