

The Runaway Romance

Sparks The Rescue

We're in deeper than we ever thought we'd be,
she's searching for shelter,

I'm trying to help her but I never seem to have quite enough of what she needs, dismay or ecstasy, arrogance, humility,

Run away hunnie stay with me, we'll live above the scene, giving up and giving in is always easy,

Far away from where we used to be, there's nothing there we need, we've had too much of not enough,

Listen to the sound of everything you know coming to an end around you,

You're gonna find that you need me more than you wanted to admit, I'm you're way out
