My name's Aaron
Hers is Betty
Our boy is a Charlie, so the neighbors sing "hooray for ABC"
ABC forever, each endeavour that I do, I do to keep together
A+B+C

BC, Betty, Betty, get back here
BC, Charlie, Charlie, get back here
You're conveniently forgetting our little wedding
So much for our ABC
Say hello to instability

Everyone we know is shifting to, is shifting fro, with The exception of we 3, we're ABC
Aaron, Betty, Charlie, here today and here
Tomorrow, I can hear them sing "Here, here" for ABC
BC, Betty, Betty, get back here
BC, Charlie, Charlie, get back here
Three was never crowded, our little house did house three handsomely
BC, Betty, Betty, get back here
BC, Charlie, Charlie, get back here
You're conveniently forgetting our little wedding, our honeymoon beside the sea

You just cannot believe in ABC

If you can't believe in ABC, you can't believe, you

Can't believe, you can't believe, you can't believe

Rumours spread like tumours, too too fast and too too true

Oh, Betty, Charlie, Betty, Charlie don't you leave

BC, that takes care of ABC
BC, that takes care of ABC
Once the fixture of the ages, the Yellow Pages start
With baby's needs
BC, back to swinging in the trees
BC, back to crawling on my knees

Aaron's here without a Betty Without a Charlie
So much for our ABC
So much for our stability
So much for our stability
So much for our A+B+C
