I'm likeable(4x)

Cause I'm likeable,they all say
Wouldn't have it any other way
And there's no other reason things go my way
I'm just likeable night and day

No hidden motives and no master plan
Strangers come up,want to shake my hand
It's in my makeup,make 'em feel at ease
Without intending to I always please
Cause I'm likeable,they all say
Wouldn't have it any other way
And there's no other reason things go my way
I'm just likeable night and day

No-one ever wears a frown when they see me coming round
When they see me coming round no-one ever wears a frown
No-one ever wears a frown when they see me coming round

And I'm likeable come what may
That,in sums, my resume
And whatever the season they beg me to say
Cause I'm likeable come what may

I'm at a bar,they all want to pay
Men,women,old and young,straight and gay
Receiving favours for what I am
Seems rather strange,but I understand

Cause I'm likeable,they all say
Wouldn't have it any other way
And there's no other reason things go my way
I'm just likeable night and day

And I'm likeable come what may
That,in sums, my resume
And whatever the season they beg me to say
Cause I'm likeable come what may

Cause I'm likeable,they all say
Wouldn't have it any other way
And there's no other reason things go my way
I'm just likeable night and day
No-one ever wears a frown when they see me coming round
When they see me coming round no-one ever wears a frown
No-one ever wears a frown when they see me coming round

Likeable,they all say
Wouldn't have it any other way
Likeable,come what may
That,in sums,my resume

Wonder what it feels like to be in love
How would you describe it,like a push or shove
Guess I keep pretending this is all I need
Wanting more than what I have might appear as greed

Cause I'm likeable, they all say
Wouldn't have it any other way
And there's no other reason things go my way
I'm just likeable night and day
And I'm likeable, come what may
That, in sums, my resume
And whatever the season they beg me to stay
Cause I'm likeable, come what may

No-one ever wears a frown when they see me coming round
When they see me coming round no-one ever wears a frown
No-one ever wears a frown when they see me coming round
When they see me coming round no-one ever wears a frown

I don't care if you love me, just so you like me
I don't care if you love me, just so you like me
I don't care if you love me, just so you like me
I don't care if you love me, just so you like me
Like me like me like me like me like me like.....(fade)
