

They say it takes a ring of gold to fix the outer shell so hold on until they return enslave the native tongue to mine their freedom out so hold on and don't give in

Our world is only what we're told how do we know?

Life spans 1000 years have gone but just a minute above
sheltered thoughts and fears if they claim what's theirs

Fading out, now we're fading out
