

I Won't Wait

Spector

Got a feeling
Got a theory
Don't come over
Don't come near me
Did we make it?
Very nearly
Do I like you?
No, not really

Gave up drinking
Read the classics
But I'm still
So-so-so-so-sociopathic
I tried too hard
To resent you
But I could never
Argue against you

I won't wait, I won't wait
(I've been waiting forever)
You're the only one I don't hate
(I've been hating forever)
Your words still keep me awake
(I've been scrolling forever)
Rolling through the promises that we never keep
Why's my contract so expensive if I talk so cheap?

She's a nine man
Yeah I'm winning
But objectifying's just the beginning
It's a problem, it's a question
And really, I'm no more than a seven

At the checkout
Tenner cashback
Watching adults compare backpacks
Watching adults compare snapbacks
Watching adults compare hatchbacks

I won't wait, I won't wait
(I've been waiting forever)
You're the only one I don't hate
(I've been hating forever)
Your words still keep me awake
(I've been scrolling forever)
Rolling through the promises that we never keep
Why's my contract so expensive if I talk so cheap?

They tell you that you're meant for greater things
I know on paper I'm not offering much
Don't weigh up staying put on my behalf
Because I make you laugh
Because I was the first sad graduate to flutter my lashes
Say I wanna get away a la Lenny Kravitz
Just promise whatever happens you'll scatter my ashes
And post a tasteless eulogy
Oh

I won't wait, I won't - wait
You're the only one I don't hate
(I've been hating forever)
Your words still keep me awake
(I've been scrolling forever)
Rolling through the promises that we never keep
Why's my contract so expensive if I talk so cheap?
