

Ripe And Ready

Spirit

Now you're finally come of age I'm gonna let the tiger out of his cage, alright
Old Mama Nature has set the stage
You be Juliet, I'm gonna be your Romeo
Curtain's up, let's start the show
Oh Lord, it feels so fine.

Name of the game is to make it last
Smart girls like you always catch on fast
Your little girl days are all in the past
Today you are a woman, I'm gonna be your man
There's no need for the sweaty hands.

It's gonna be all right
We'll rock on through the night
I'll keep that door in sight
In case your daddy comes home.

You're a sweetheart, open your heart
All walls down, let love show
Come to me cause I can see
You're ripe and ready to go.
