

Witch

Spirit

She's all of eighteen, she's every young man's dream, she's so foxy
Goddess's lips and oo such slinky hips, I know she really rocks me
I don't know what she's all about
But I could sure have fun while I'm finding out
She looks like an angel but I've heard some say
That she can break a man down and then just throw him away.

She's no longer in school cause she broke every rule, might say she's lazy
Dressed in style and wearing that smile that drives me crazy, c razy, crazy
I could make her mine if I tried
But in the end I'm afraid she'd make me cry Is it love or lust ? I ain't sure which is which
And is it wise to fall in love with such a witch ?

Love's too big a gamble with a girl like you You'd make my life a shambles I know before you're through.

So get away honey, get away
Get away sugar, know you can't stay
You're driving me crazy in every way
You're making me feel like I want to say
Na na na na ...

I've tried your kind before, it always ends the same
You're always wanting more and anything's fair game.

So get away honey, get away
Get away sugar, know you can't stay
You're driving me crazy in every way
You're making me feel like I want to say
Na na na na ...

I've tried your kind before, it always ends the same
You're always wanting more and anything's fair game.

So get away honey, get away
Get away sugar, know you can't stay
You're driving me crazy in every way
You're making me feel like I want to say
Na na na na ...
