

Fallout

Spiritfall

Complicate my complication but I just don't know Interpreting my interpretation on the direction my life should go Throwing my pride into the fire,
you're fueling my shame It's part of me that I never did like but it's something I just can't change

You seal your own fate
You ignite my shame
To you it's a game
Fallout of my

Atomic nuclear fusion
Too late to change
Explosion of my confusion,
end of my pain
Quicksand, I'm sinking deeper and I can't get out Someday I'll rise above you somehow somehow

You seal your own fate
You ignite my shame
To you it's a game
Fallout of my
My way
Fallout of my way
My way

I cannot take your place
I miss seeing your face
What's with this thorn in my side,
that I can't get out
I cannot take your place
I miss feeling your hand in mine
What's with this thorn in my side,
that I can't get out

I can't get out
I can't get out
I can't get out
I can't get out
