

Without Words

Spiritfall

You came to me without a warnin'
I cannot explain it
You're everything that I've ever liked
And you're the only one
I see your face in the morning
It's all I need
A passion wrapped up in compassion
And I feel it

Without words you hear my thoughts
Your god touches my soul
You were sent to fill a void
My void

You run away but you can't hide it
I cannot explain it
I see all the things you've been missin'
And I'm the only one
You run away but you can't fight it
I'm all you need
Consumed by your fire
And it's burnin'

Without words you hear my thoughts
Your god touches my soul
You were sent to fill a void
My void

Self-entangling vision
When I see your pain in your eyes
I feel it rushing through me
What'd you do to me?
Ohh
What'd you do to me?

Without words you hear my thoughts
Your god touches my soul
You were sent to fill a void
My void

Without words you hear my thoughts
Your god touches my soul
You were sent to fill a void
My void
