

No Bother To Me

Split Enz

It's no bother for me to beg for my friends
My feet are cold and I'm going round the bend
It won't hurt me to cry out loud
My heart is burning and I'm far too proud
And I'm just a hungry traveller, and I'd like to share your table

Nobody's going to spoil my plans
I'd rather eat with my hands
And I think I'll be alright now
Maybe I'll come back and stay some day (repeat 3 times)
I'll even bring my children so they can play

It's no bother for me to beg, I was sane
My eyes are red and my hands in pain
It won't hurt me to say what I mean
My throat is blistered but my hands are clean

And I'm just your long lost love and I'd love you still but I'm not able
They won't catch me if I can help it
Just hold me down if I have a fit

And I think I'll be alright now
Say that I'll be normal some day (repeat 3 times)
Now they laugh and teach me how to pray
