

It All Depends

Squirrel Nut Zippers

Holding hands, a lover's glance we could wait or take a chance a love that's true
it all depends on you
A chance for love, a chance for bliss full moon above, two lips to kiss or start anew
it all depends on you
Will we fall apart
the way that star-crossed lovers do was i a fool
to ever fall in love with you Make no mistake, i will wait patiently until the day when you love me too
it all depends on you
Break
Repeat last two stanzas On you
on you
