The Wreck Of The Athens Queen

Stan Rogers

We were drinking down to Reedy's house When first we heard the blow It seemed to come from Ripper Rock So boldly forth to go

And sure enough the rusty tub Could just be barely seen As her stern was high up in the air We made out Athens Queen

O, the lovely Athens Queen

Me boys I must remind you There's a bottle left inside So let us go and have a few And wait until low tide

And if the sea's not claimed her When the glasses are licked clean We will then set forth some dories lads And see what may be seen

On the lovely Athens Queen

Some songs and old tall stories then Came out to pass the time Nor could a single bottle Keep us all until low tide

And so it was before we left The house we were at sea So we scarcely can remember How we made the Athens Queen

O, the lovely Athens Queen

O the waves inside me belly Were as high as those outside And though I'm never seasick I lost dinner overside

T'was well there was no crew to save For we'd have scared 'em green We could scarcely keep ourselves From falling off the Athens Queen

O, the lovely Athens Queen

Well Reedy goes straight down below And comes up with a cow Hello I said now what would you Be wantin' with that now

You'll never take the cow home
In a dory on such sea
Well me friend he says I've always fancied
Fresh cream in me tea

For the lovely Athens Queen

I headed for the galley then Cause I was rather dry And glad I was to get there quick For what should I spy

O what a shame it would have been For to lose it all at sea Forty cases of the best Napolean Brandy ever seen

On the lovely Athens Queen

I loaded twenty cases boys
Then headed for the shore
Unloaded them as quick as that
And then pulled back for more

Smith was pullin' for the shore But he could scarce be seen Under near two hundred chickens And a leather couch of green

From the lovely Athens Queen

So here's to all good salvagers Likewise to Ripper Rock And to Napolean brandy of which Now we have much stock

We eat a lot of chicken
And sit on a couch of green
And we wait for Ripper Rock
To claim another Athens Queen

O, the lovely Athens Queen
