That's why I'm self employed, don't rent go get a mortgage

They trained us to destroy shit they brainwashed me before

World gone still spend when you ain't coppin them jordans

You better be investing while you slanging all that boy (H)

Cause the whole time you been hanging round a name dropping informant (wait, damn)

That's how it be forreal (forreal)

Brain can't even contain all this game I got for ya, don't play the game for the haters cause they not important

Way too much opportunity waiting out here for ya

That's a waste of energy, don't waste ya time. avoid it

At all costs... I'll fall back before I fall off (Lito)

If these walls could talk

I really manifest destiny, this was all from a thought

I put that thought into action, I went from trappin to rappin, forreal (GrindHard)

And I ain't going back and that's real, in a half a year made a half a mill and I ain't havin no deal
