Niggas turned to haters, I turn and order that bitch broke, I won't get her

Man this shit breaking my heart
I'm taking it hard, pacing, facing gars, taking a charge
Testing my patience, and my faith in God
Open cases on probation, what ima tell Nard
CEO the same as the artist a 28, and a k in the car, wide open
Swear I lost my mind a long time ago, trying to focus
I just got reminded what I'm grinding hard, riding bogus
Iron on me, I ain't dying tho, but I signed up for it
If I get some time, I ain't crying over it
Mind blowing, niggas out here blind get to high to know it
Got to keep my 5, I know at least 5 niggas wanna slide on me
Numb to it, I ain't high homie
Rather thumb through it, then provide
I ain't one for tucking in my pride, ima ride tuck it in my waist line
Tell her I love her on facetime, in case I don't make it
My life ain't safe, it's always off safety, I can't let them take me
One of my first lessons in these streets was never hesitate
Probably need therapy, I'm self-medicating
