

Hoping For Tomorrow

Stars Go Dim

I lie awake
Hoping for tomorrow
Coz today is gone
and I'm still not with you

It hurts so much
To know that I might never see
A smiling face like Heaven
looking back at me

And how it feels to be really loved
To never be along
Ever again

If I would have said
That I loved you
A million more times would you stay
If I would have taken the time
To show you
Just how much you mean to me
Now would I be lost in this world
Searching for love
That I already had in front of me
And I'm hoping tomorrow
Will bring you back
Home to me

It's a new day
Another attempt at saving grace
A chance to get you back
And fall in love with me again

So I head downtown
To the place where we used to meet
To buy some roses over candle light
And wait for you

Would you ever show
So I just wanna go
And do it again

If I would have said
That I loved you
A million more times would you stay
If I would have taken the time
To show you
Just how much you mean to me
Now would I be lost in this world
Searching for love
That I already had in front of me
And I'm hoping tomorrow
Will bring you back
Home to me

It's been two years
Since the last time that I saw you

My life is somewhat normal
But I still think of you

And every night
Right before I go to sleep
I wonder if you're dreaming
And where you might be

Coz if I only knew
I'd close my eyes and be with you
And never wake up

If I would have said
That I loved you
A million more times would you stay
If I would have taken the time
To show you
Just how much you mean to me
Now would I be lost in this world
Searching for a love
That I already had in front of me
And I'm hoping tomorrow
I'm gonna hope, I'm gonna hope for you
And I'm hoping tomorrow
Will bring you home

If I would have said
