

If It's Amazing Grace

Stars Go Dim

There comes a time when we all take a breathe.
Admit who we are with all our mess.
Stand there and tremble and hope for the best,
knowing its out of our hands.

But, if its Amazing Grace let it do what it does.
It can reach far beyond anything we have done.
Truth is, there's just some things that cannot be explained.
It's gonna find a way if its Amazing Grace.

Many before us have stood on that ledge.
Arguments filling their hearts and their heads
to only discover that its all to true;
that it can make anyone new.

If its Amazing Grace let it do what it does.
It can reach far beyond anything we have done.
Truth is there's just some things that cannot be explained.
It's gonna find a way if its Amazing Grace.

It crashes through darkness; shatters our shame.
We can run all we want but it keeps calling our names.
It's strong and relentless; full of forgiveness.
No death it wont go just to save.

But, if its Amazing Grace let it do what it does.
It can reach far beyond anything we have done.
Truth is there's just some things that cannot be explained.
It's gonna find a way if its Amazing Grace.
It's gonna find a way if its Amazing Grace.
I know my hearts been changed by this Amazing Grace.
