

Yes He Does

Stars Go Dim

Have you forgotten the One who first called you by name
Have you let life's disappointments make you think He's changed

Won't you come and see again
Let your heart believe again

Yes, He does
Still heal the broken
Run to the hurting
Pour out His love
Yes, He does
Restore the hope of
All those who wait for
A miracle
Yes, He does
Yes, He does

Don't you lose faith when it feels like your world's caving in God won't let go, He knows who you are and where you've been

There's no tear overlooked
Nothing He can't turn for good

Yes, He does
Still heal the broken
Run to the hurting
Pour out His love
Yes, He does
Restore the hope of
All those who wait for
A miracle
Yes, He does
Yes, He does

Greater things are still to come
Cause His love isn't through
So let your heart believe again
That He's not done with you

Greater things are still to come
Cause His love isn't through
So let your heart believe again
That He's not done with you

Yes, He does
Still heal the broken
Run to the hurting
Pour out His love
Yes, He does
Restore the hope of
All those who wait for
A miracle
Yes, He does
Yes, He does
