

This Endless Endeavor

Starset

I separate
Into the arms of the broken
Accept this fate
Exposed to the world in the open
To drift from all I know

I get lost in the world sometimes
Star-crossed, looking out for a light
But it won't shine
So North Star come and guide me to you
In the wake of my own confines
I will wait for the day you call through the skylines
And I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting

I'm gone without you
Could it be forever?
Go on without you
This endless endeavor
This endless endeavor

Lonely wade
Out to the depths of an ocean
A castaway, I
Suffer the death of emotion
Between the waves of woe

I'm gone without you
Could it be forever?
Go on without you
This endless endeavor

This endless endeavor
This endless endeavor
This endless endeavor

I get lost in the world sometimes
Star-crossed, looking out for a light
But it won't shine
So North Star come, North Star come
In the wake of my own confines
I will wait for the day you call through the skylines
And I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting

I'm gone without you
Could it be forever
Go on without you
This endless endeavor
