

Blind, you wouldn't see what's real if it hit your eyes
Lies, and fantasies to deal 'cause you're dead inside

So go on, put up defenses
Pretend there's no consequences
But it's just a dog and pony show
Why feel it when you can hide it
Don't look at it just deny it
But I hate to say I told you so

Can you feel the heat come from the gun?
Sending out the truth bombs, ten kiloton
Marching to the beat of oblivion
Hiding behind the web you have spun
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision

Gaslight gaslight flames
Hide the fire of a straw man burning
Close-mind one-side games
From a liar who won't stop subverting

Now you're narrowing your logic
It's blurry and kind of toxic
But you're full of braggadocio
This was something you incited
You opened up and invited
And I hate to say I told you so

Can you feel the heat come from the gun?
Sending out the truth bombs, ten kiloton
Marching to the beat of oblivion
Hiding behind the web you have spun
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision

You took me for a fly
And fancied yourself a spider in a web of little lies
What a nice surprise
When the curtain's pulled back you can see the whole trap inside
And now the emperor has got no clothes
What a lovely show
When your cover's blown you'll never know
'Cause you can't see past your nose

Can you feel the heat come from the gun?
Sending out the truth bombs, ten kiloton
Marching to the beat of oblivion
Hiding behind the web you have spun
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
Tunnel vision
