

Tongue Tied

Status Quo

This is the way I feel
I'm feeling tongue tied
This is the way I feel
I'm feeling numb
When you walked by, I knew that I
Would fall in love, love with you

This is the way I feel
It's just like flying
This is the way I feel
I'm all undone
Time rages on
It's come and gone
Time has a way
Plays with us

I'm just dreaming of a time long ago
I'm just dreaming of the past
I've been feeling that there's not long to go
Why does living go so fast?

When I was running wild,
Was in a tailspin
Wishing I was the child
I'd never been
So many times, so many climbs
Where does it go, oh from here?

I'm just dreaming of a time long ago
I'm just dreaming of the past
I've been feeling that there's not long to go
Why does living go so fast?

I'm just dreaming of a time long ago
I'm just dreaming of the past
I've been feeling that there's not long to go
Why does living go so fast?

Why does living go so fast?
Why does living go so fast?
