

All I Need

Stealing Eden

Everything you want to be
Anything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is

When you see there's no place left to go
Why can't you leave this alone
Just leave me here on my own
And all you want to do is to let go
I can't believe that it's true
Just what I've done to you
Why can't you leave this alone
Why can't you leave this alone
Why can't you leave this
'Cause all I need is you

Everything you want to be
Anything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is you

Everything you want to see
Everything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is

All the things that I have left unsaid
Why can't you leave this alone
Just leave me here on my own
Have left me hanging by a thread
I can't believe that it's true
Just what I've done to you
Why can't you leave this alone
Why can't you leave this alone
Why can't you leave this
'Cause all I need is you

Everything you want to be
Anything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is you

Everything you want to see
Everything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is YOU!

Falling down again (You!)
I will always be (You!)
Falling down again (You!)
I will always be

All I need is you
All I need is you
All I need is you
All I need is
All I need is
'Cause all I need is you

Everything you want to be
Anything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is you

Everything you want to see
Everything you want from me
'Cause all I need is, all I need is YOU!
