

Blue Portals

Steam Powered Giraffe

Have you ever felt lost, or broken down?
Like your heart's in a vault, and it ain't no one's fault?
Felt the need for repair,
Or just somewhere to regroup your soul?
Get things under control?

I know a place where we could go,
Just follow me into a Blue Portal!

Have you ever wanted to escape,
To a place so far away?
Well I'll tell you, I've been there before,
A thousand times a day!

Beautiful, ghostly,
Blue Portals!
Strangely corroding
My whole world!

Open up the Blue Portal!

If you don't want to waste
Your dreams on sleep,
Then come on, help me break
The fabric of reality!
Go ahead, walk on through that blue membrane!

Beautiful, ghostly,
Blue Portals!
Strangely corroding
My whole world!

Hey now, there's no need to be afraid,
I'll have you back yesterday!

Didn't you wonder why there are infinite yous?
Didn't I say it'd be okay?

Beautiful, ghostly,
Blue Portals!
Strangely corroding
My whole world!

Open up the Blue Portal!
Open up the Blue Portal!
I said, open up that Blue Portal!
Open up the Blue Portal!
Open up the Blue Portal!
Open up the Blue Portal!
