

Eat Your Heart

Steam Powered Giraffe

Poor little girl ran away so far
From a heart so sad and scared
Poor little girl Mom and Dad don't know
Why you're lost in the forest feeling low
Feeling low

Stay with me, You my four leaf-clover-girl
And you can lock me up in time
And when you wear a grin I'm bored
And then I see you cry

So eat your heart out, Casanova
Love is a bittersweet ambrosia
They say it gets better, but it don't get better
Wish it was, but it never gets better

Baby, when you go to pieces
I could eat your heart out darling
The proof is in the pudding, baby
You're a hot jump start, but let me eat your heart
Let me eat your heart

Cry for me, you're my mascara bleeding girl
And I will hold you safe at night
And I don't want you to weep
But your tears are sweet wine

So eat your heart out, Casanova
Love is a bittersweet ambrosia
They say it gets better, but it don't get better
Wish it was, but it never gets better

Baby, when you go to pieces
I could eat your heart out darling
The proof is in the pudding, baby
You're a hot jump start, but let me eat your heart
Let me eat your heart
(Your heart your heart your beautiful heart)
(Your heart your heart your lovely heart)

It's true, I love you
But only when you're crying
I can't, believe
Such joy in pain, it's crazy
And when I am sad and blue (when I'm sad and blue)
I cuddle close to you (so close to you)
And when you pat my head I know I've found my soul
And deep inside a burning, and it makes me feel so
Cold

It makes me feel so cold
It makes me feel so cold
I feel nothing. I feel nothing. I feel nothing. I feel nothing
I feel nothing but your pain
And that's the only thing I need

Just a taste

Baby, when you go to pieces
I could eat your heart out darling
The proof is in the pudding, baby
You're hot jump start, but let me eat your heart
Let me eat your heart
Let me eat your heart
Let me eat your heeeeeaaaaaart
(Your heart your heart your beautiful heart)
(Your heart your heart your lovely heart)

You're a hot jump star, let me eat your heart
