

Wink the Satellite

Steam Powered Giraffe

There's a world out there, there's a world out there, there's a world out there waiting for you (2x)

Would you believe me if I told you a satellite paid me a visit
(No)

A round metal mound with a telescope eye a tear trickled down as he told me his story

His tale was a blur, I couldn't make out the words, I said, "Slow down, begin at the beginning, and, start with your name."

Start with your name

W.I.N.K.: My name is W.I.N.K. the Satellite, mission aborted coming home from endless nights

W.I.N.K. #109, our mission was a failure, we're running out of time

Sent to the Vice Quadrant to find us a new home but unlike other satellites, I fear being alone
When I saw her green visage, it was love at first sight but then the Space Giant appeared and took the first bite

Hatchworth: Ooh, that sounds bad.

Rabbit: It doesn't sound too good!

Spine: Gang, we should do something about this.

Rabbit: Okay!

Hatchworth: Let's.

We can get Peter A Walter the 6th to turn you into a rocketship fly on back and speak with this Giant (Yeah)
We can ask it to please leave, and hope that it agrees you see, the key to conflict resolution is communication

W.I.N.K.: Let's give it a try
How much could it hurt?

The name is W.I.N.K. the Satellite, mission reinstated let's get up in that sky
W.I.N.K. #109 let's save the love I left behind
We're ready to fly
