

Devil On My Shoulder

Stefanie Heinzmann

Everybody's telling me what's best for me
What the hell do they know?
Walk a mile in my shoes, I'm tear you do
I might just take this road alone
We'll always playing for the future
Well, the future begins in
Four, three, two, one

Time to make room for the devil on my shoulder
Tell the better angels to move to fuck over
I got escaped started before, tonight is over
Time to make room for the devil
The devil on my shoulder
(oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh)

Baby I should, Baby I shouldn't
You host to see, it's dangerous so play it safe
I don't wanna sleep on it, let's not and say we did tomorrow's so far away
We'll always playing for the future
Well, the future begins in
Four, three, two, one

Time to make room for the devil on my shoulder
Tell the better angels to move to fuck over
I got escaped started before, tonight is over
Time to make room for the devil
The devil on my shoulder
(oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh)
The devil on my shoulder
(oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh)

One day I'll be a grandma
With all my tattoos
They tell the story of my life and when I lose
I face on my mistakes at the end of my days
And play that game oh let's play that game

Time to make room for the devil on my shoulder
Tell the better angels to move to fuck over
I got escaped started before, tonight is over
Time to make room for the devil
The devil on my shoulder

Time to make room for the devil on my shoulder
Tell the better angels to move to fuck over
I got escaped started before, tonight is over
Time to make room for the devil
The devil on my shoulder
(oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh)
The devil on my shoulder
(oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh oulder, oh-oh-oh)
